

Proclamation

by
Jim Newberry
Mayor

Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government

So All So Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, the Lexington Kennel Club is hosting the Bluegrass Classic dog show, one of the largest in the region, Aug. 28 - Sept. 1, 2008; and

WHEREAS, the Lexington Kennel Club was founded in the 1940s to advance the interests of all breeds of purebred dogs and encourage sportsmanlike competition at dog shows and obedience trials; and

WHEREAS, the Lexington Kennel Club is involved in many community service projects, including a recent donation of small animal oxygen masks to the city; provision of treats and water for pets and literature for owners at Farmers Market sites; and annual contributions to the Lexington Humane Society and the Bluegrass Animal Welfare League.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Newberry, Mayor of the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government, do hereby proclaim Aug. 28 - Sept. 1, 2008, as:

BLUEGRASS CLASSIC DOG SHOW DAYS

Jim Newberry, Mayor

